THE ASYLUM ROAD AGAIN.

Candor compels every fair-minded man to admit the unreasonableness of expecting the Government to "make bricks without straw," but there is no unreasonableness in expecting the Government to proceed with the making of "bricks" as rapidly as the "straw" becomes available; and as "straw" is now coming into the tax collector's office, it would be very gratifying to dwellers in the locality of the Lunatic Asylum to see a few "bricks" laid on their make-shift-for-a-road.

The people who are so concerned in this matter are not blind to the fact that there are other people and other roads in other parts which need and clamor for attention; but they consider they have a first claim, partly because their road is in a worse condition than most other, if not all other, roads throughout the district, and partly because nothing ever has been done for their road by the Government, past or present, and they have an idea that they are entitled to the next turn.

A visit to that neighborhood and a superficial inspection of the narrow and miry passage that leads to it, a few days ago, convinced us that the residents had good reason to be dissatisfied. At the time of our visit, just after the heavy rains of last week, a large portion of the so-called road was nothing but deep pools of thick mud, through which it was extremely difficult for one horse to draw an empty express. The depth may be judged when we state that at one spot, close to Mr. W. Austin's gate, the wheels of an ordinary passenger carriage, with nobody in it except the driver, sank to within six inches of the axle.

Inquiry of people in the neighborhood elicited the information that all the making and repairing done up to the present time have been effected by private parties at their own expense, and that these parties have at different times filled up the worst holes with stones, and otherwise essayed to render the thoroughfare traversable; but they have indulged the expectation that the present administration will afford them some help, and they are now anxiously awaiting fulfillment.

It is to be hoped, for the sake of the Government Institution—the Lunatic Asylum—located at the terminus of the road referred to, and for the sake of the many hard-working tax payers in the same locality, that the authorities will favorably consider this case, and devote a little of the "straw" now being stacked in the collector's office to making a few "bricks" for the purpose above indicated.

WHOSE IS THE CREDIT?

If there is anything which proves the ability of former administrations it is the P.C.A.'s editorial of yesterday, giving such a flourishing report of the country's prosperity. It is the force and vitality which former Ministries gave to our political and commercial affairs, which is not yet crushed. If, however, the present Ministry is in office two years from now, and the country is as flourishing and as improved in proportion as it ought to be, then the Ministry can take credit to themselves and not till then.

18—Kalakana Purse. Barge race 2 entries. Kapiolalehua, Hanakeoki and True Blue.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Iwalani brought 4100 packages of sugar.

The Iwalani will leave on Friday at 4 p. m., and the Jas Makee on the same day at 5.

The Ella has taken the J. A. Falkenburg's berth, and will probably sail on the 25th.

The electric light was used on the Iwalani last trip and frightened the natives at Kona and Kau.

The Remijio was sent on to San Francisco yesterday by her agents. She was 42 days from Fiji, and had been detained there for 61 days while repairing. Our readers will remember that we have given news of her from time to time. It appears that she put into Fiji for repairs, because she could only stand on one tack without sinking.

It is said the Alaska will leave on the 20th if no further orders arrive by the Suez.

A barkentine loaded with lumber was telephoned on Monday night, as being 12 miles off Diamond Head. Nothing has since been heard of her.

We hear that the sloop Holomua (formerly Sport on the Wave), grounded on Pipiloa Point, Pearl River Lochs, on Monday night. She was entered for the King's Cup race.

LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS.

His Majesty will hold a levee this morning at 9 o'clock.

Capt. Dutton's lecture was very interesting.

The police force are to address His Majesty this morning at 10 o'clock.

We hear that there is every probability of a steamboat race being added to Thursday's programme.

RAIN appears to be general throughout the islands. Our special correspondents report nothing of importance.

A number of our citizens have tendered a complimentary reception and ball to the Captain and officers of the Alaska, on Friday evening, at the Music Hall.

The mail for San Francisco per J. A. Falkenburg, closes at 2 o'clock this afternoon. All letters marked "per J. A. Falkenburg" will be forwarded.

Mr. Wray Taylor will give his ninth free organ recital in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Tuesday evening, Nov. 21st, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Hanford and Mr. A. T. Atkinson, vocalists.

THERE is increasing excitement over the races. We heard that the Government House crew were so affected by the time made by the Mercantile crew yesterday morning that they were on the point of adding new members to their crew, in place of some already in. Later, however, we heard that the breach was healed.

It was noticed by an applicant for payment at the Interior office the other day, that the bills, of which payment was refused, were against the Board of Health.

To-night the torchlight procession will take place in honor of His Majesty's birthday. The different companies are requested to assemble in full uniform without apparatus at 7 o'clock, in the square in front of Mechanic Engine Co. No. 2's engine house.

At 7 p. m. Monday night, the steam roller stopped suddenly on Nuuanu street. It was, however, speedily attended to, no damage having been done owing to the engineer's ingenious contrivance for preventing danger.

The Minister of the Interior has ordered a street-cleaner from San Francisco. This is indeed good news and the sooner it arrives the better. We feel sure that Mr. Bush's reputation for attending to the public convenience will be considerably raised by this news.

It is said the Auditor-General and the Interior Department are at logger-heads, and that the Chief Clerk was asked to give his opinion on the law as legal adviser. Since then we hear that the Supreme Court Bench have been asked and have given their decision on the matter in dispute.

The line of march of the procession to-night is as follows: From the Armory square on Queen street, up Nuuanu street to King, and along King street to the Palace, entering the Palace grounds and Aloha to His Majesty. Then out by the Richard street gate, up Richard street to Beretania, along Beretania street to Nuuanu and back to the Armory.

It is rumored that Messrs. Whitney and Thatcher have been asked to fill the two vacancies in the boats crew of the "Melia." Should they consent, and not get to practicing prematurely on the "thole-pins"—the "Melia" will doubtless win, as they are well-known as the best "pullers" in Honolulu.

We draw attention to the tenders called for the lease of all or part of the Long Premises, in Manoa Valley, now advertised in another column. Rice, taro, or banana planters and those in search of a comfortable homestead have here a fine opportunity to invest.

We would draw the attention of the Government once more to the inconvenience and danger attending the use of the Beretania street tramroad. On Saturday a trial trip was made over the line by the engine. The hour selected was 4 to 5 p. m., as very unwise one, as most people in that neighborhood were then out driving. Several narrow escapes from accident have been reported to us.
